CREDIT CARD ON FILE BILLING AUTHORIZATION FAQ

Q: How does the automatic billing process work?

A: Your credit card will be captured today and stored securely. After your insurance carrier responds and provides us your remaining balance due we may charge the patient responsibility to your credit card on file, not to exceed the maximum balance due indicated in the agreement. Your credit card on file will only be charged when you have a balance owing on your account or for a non-covered service.

Q: How will I know how much you are going to charge me?

A: You will receive an explanation of benefit from your insurance carrier that explains exactly, according to your health insurance coverage and benefits, how much of your healthcare bill is your responsibility and how much the insurance paid along with any contractual adjustments. In the case of a “No Show” the fee is $30.00.

Q: What if I need to dispute my bill?

A: We will always work with you to resolve any issues and will refund you if we have made a billing error. We will only charge the amount that we are instructed by your insurance carrier to collect from you in the same way that we normally determine how much to send you a statement for in the mail or let you know on your next appointment. If you disagree with how your insurance carrier processed the claim you will need to contact their customer service department directly. If you need to dispute a “No Show Fee” please contact our office.

Q: Will I receive a statement or receipt for the charges automatically billed to my card?

A: Not automatically. Your insurance carrier EOB and your credit card statement will be your receipt. You can at any time contact us to have an account itemization emailed to you. Any services provided which you are not covered under any insurance may be used for tax purposes which you will need a copy of your receipts and/or account history which we will provide upon request.

Q: What is a deductible?

A: An annual deductible is the dollar amount you must pay out of your own pocketing during your plan year for medical expenses before your insurance begins to pay. For example, if the policy has a $1,000 deductible, you must pay the first $1,000 of medical expenses before your insurance will begin to pay. Your insurance company must receive a claim to process in order to apply balances towards your deductible. Even if you have a high deductible plan we encourage you to have us submit the claim to your insurance so you receive a contractual adjustment and the services can be applied towards your deductible.

Q: What is the “No Show Fee”?

A: The “No Show Fee” of $30.00 is applicable when a patient does not attend a scheduled appointment and does not call prior to their appointment to cancel or reschedule. If the patient calls to reschedule or cancel prior to their appointment time – the “No Show Fee” is not applicable.

Q: Will I be charged the “No Show Fee” if I am unable to make the appointment but due to an emergency, I was unable to call to cancel or reschedule?

A: If you are unable to make your appointment due to an emergency and are unable to call to cancel or reschedule your appointment, you will be initially charged the “No Show Fee”. After speaking with the patient, if we determine that an emergency kept you from informing us – you will be credited the amount charged to your account. This is likely in the case of a medical emergency or death in the family.
